

Elderly Waiver program

What is the Elderly Waiver program?

---

The Elderly Waiver program funds home and community-based services for people age 65 and older who are eligible for Medical Assistance and require the level of care provided in a nursing home but choose to live in the community. The Minnesota Department of Human Services operates the program under a federal waiver to Minnesota's Medicaid state plan. Counties, tribal entities and health plan partners administer the program.

What types of services are available?

Covered services include:

- Adult day service
- Case management
- Changes to make homes and equipment accessible
- Chore services
- Companion services
- Consumer-directed community supports
- Home health aides
- Home-delivered meals
- Homemaker services
- Licensed community residential services, including customized living services, family and corporate foster care and residential care
- Nonmedical transportation
- Personal care
- Personal emergency response systems
- Respite care
- Skilled nursing
- Specialized equipment and supplies
- Supports during transitions between different types of housing
- Training and support for family caregivers

Who is eligible?

---

A person age 65 or older who is assessed through the Long-Term Care Consultation process is eligible for the Elderly Waiver program when the following criteria are met:

- The person is eligible for Medical Assistance and in need of nursing home level of care as determined by the Long-Term Care Consultation process.
- The cost for a person's Elderly Waiver services cannot be greater than the estimated nursing home cost for that person.
- The person chooses to receive services in the community instead of nursing facility services.

How many people? How many dollars?

In fiscal year 2018, the program served 30,276 people at a total cost of $435,598,529. The average monthly participant population for fiscal year 2018 was 25,234 with an average monthly cost of $1,439.

Ninety percent of participants receive their services through a managed care organization. Managed care program options include:

- Minnesota Senior Health Options, an integrated Medicaid/Medicare health and long-term care program
- Minnesota Senior Care Plus, a Medicaid health and long-term care option.

What alternatives exist for people who are eligible for the Elderly Waiver?

Alternatives to the Elderly Waiver include Medicaid-certified skilled nursing facilities and certified board-and-care homes. The average cost of these alternative settings is $5,492 per person, per month.
