Child protection and child welfare responses to labor trafficking

Report of suspected labor trafficking

Cross report labor trafficking to law enforcement and coordinate response

Family Investigation/Family Assessment

Assess safety and create safety plan

Determine if there is a need for placement

Coordinate interviews with law enforcement

Determine need for ongoing child protection services

Child Welfare Response

Assess safety and create safety plan

Coordinate victim contact with law enforcement

Determine need for child welfare case management

In all cases, assigned child protection and child welfare workers should:

- Refer to medical and behavioral health evaluations
- Refer to specific labor trafficking services
- If foreign national, notify the Office of Trafficking in Persons and refer for immigration services

Other maltreatment screened in

Labor trafficking is the only report

For accessible formats of this information or assistance with additional equal access to human services, write to dhs.info@state.mn.us, call 651-431-4670, or use your preferred relay service. ADA1 (2-18)